

STOPPING HARASSMENT, BULLYING OR VIOLENCE.

Remember, "I am important."

Use assertive body language.

Say "Stop. I don't like it."

Stay calm and walk away.

Don't retaliate.

'Bounce back'.

Talk to a friend.

Tell a teacher.

We are responsible for our behaviour.

We accept and learn from the consequences of our actions.

Consequences are non-violent and related to the behaviour.

SORTING OUT DISAGREEMENTS

Cool down

Keep problems small

Be willing to fix the problem

Ask a teacher to help sort it out

Talk honestly

Use I statements

Say what the problem is for you

Don't 'put down' or threaten

Listen to what the problem is for them

Don't interrupt

Think of ways to make things better

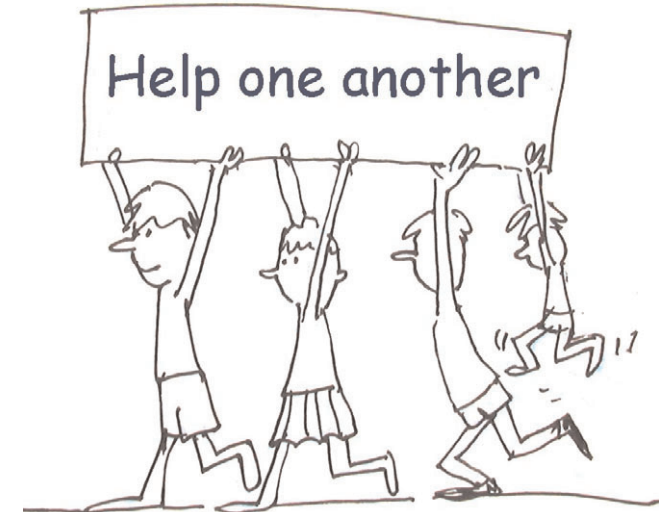

Let go of the hurt and move on

Don't pass on bad stories or gossip
